

Free Downloadable Magazines Instructions

If you're new to checking out and downloading magazines, please follow these instructions:

RBdigital-OneClickDigital:

1. Click on the RBdigital logo
2. Click on Create New Account
3. Complete the form, name, email, password (Password will need at least seven letters and numbers)
4. Leave the website and then go to your device's App Store or Google Play Store...

Install the RBdigital-OneClickDigital app on your device

Log in to the app with the email address and password that you just used to create your account. Check out and then download a magazine.

If you've been using Zinio:

Zinio is changing its look and the way you look for magazines. You'll want to go to the Google Play Store or to the iPad App store and get the new app. It's called RBdigital, or OneClickDigital, either way you'll find it and it looks like this:

Once you have the new app on your device log in to the app with the email address and password that you used to create your original Zinio account. Now you should only need to go to the app to checkout and download magazines.
